

hackPHS Code of Conduct

As a participant of hackPHS at Princeton High School, I will uphold the following pillars of character:

Trustworthiness:

I will be loyal, honest, reliable, and demonstrate integrity.

Respect:

I will show respect and be considerate of the property and feelings of others. I will be gracious in victory and in defeat. I will not engage in disrespectful conduct.

Responsibility:

I will commit to being a hacker first and foremost and commit to earning the best educational experience I can. I will represent my team with honor. I will protect the integrity of my activity and will participate according to the rules.

Fairness:

I will live up to the standards of fair play. I will be open-minded, never judgmental. I will always be willing to listen and learn.

Caring:

I will demonstrate concern for the ideas, feelings, experiences and beliefs of others.

I. Chemical Free Rules:

There will be no use or possession of tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, or drugs (except by physician's prescription) in or out of school as outlined in PPSD Policy.

Violation of the Chemical Free Rules:

Use, possession, or distribution of tobacco products, and chemicals mentioned above will result in expulsion from the event.
